Reporting questionnaire

Gender equality indicator 1: Gender composition of workforce

This indicator seeks information about the gender composition of relevant employers in a standardised format, to enable the aggregation of data across and within industries. The aggregated data in your workplace profile assists relevant employers in understanding the characteristics of their workforce, including in relation to occupational segregation, the position of women and men in management within their industry or sector, and patterns of potentially insecure employment.

NB. IMPORTANT:

- References to the Act mean the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012.
- A formal 'policy' and/or 'formal strategy' in this questionnaire refers to formal policies and/or strategies that are either standalone or contained within another formal policy/formal strategy.
- Data provided in this reporting questionnaire covers the TOTAL reporting period from 1 April 2019 to 31 March 2020. (This differs from the workplace profile data which is taken at a point-in-time during the reporting period).
- Answers need to reflect ALL organisations covered in this report.
- If you select "NO, Insufficient resources/expertise" to any option, this may cover human or financial resources.

Gender equality indicator 2: Gender composition of governing bodies

Gender composition of governing bodies is an indicator of gender equality at the highest level of organisational leadership and decision-making. This gender equality indicator seeks information on the representation of women and men on governing bodies. The term "governing body" in relation to a relevant employer is broad and depends on the nature of your organisation. It can mean the board of directors, trustees, committee of management, council or other governing authority of the employer.

2. The organisation(s) you are reporting on will have a governing body. In the Act, governing body is defined as "the board of directors, trustees, committee of management, council or other governing authority of the employer". This question relates to the highest governing body for your Australian entity, even if it is located overseas.

2.1 Please answer the following questions relating to each governing body covered in this report.

Note: If this report covers more than one organisation, the questions below will be repeated for each organisation before proceeding to question 2.2.

If your organisation's governing body is the same as your parent entity's, you will need to add your organisation's name BUT the numerical details of your parent entity's governing body.

4.2 If your organisation would like to provide additional information relating to gender equality indicator 3, please do so below:

Gender equality indicator 4: Flexible working and support for employees with family and caring responsibilities

This indicator will enable the collection and use of information from relevant employers about the availability and utility of employment terms, conditions and practices relating to flexible working arrangements for employees and to working arrangements supporting employees with family or caring responsibilities. One aim of this indicator is to improve the capacity of women and men to combine paid work and family or caring responsibilities through such arrangements. The achievement of this goal is fundamental to gender equality and to maximising Australia's skilled workforce.

5. A "PRIMARY CARER" is the member of a couple or a single carer, REGARDLESS OF GENDER, identified as having greater responsibility for the day-to-day care of a child.

Cultural Intelligence

Commenced the roll out of a one-day cultural intelligence development program, with a specific focus on Vietnam, to help our leaders to better navigate interconnectedness of global markets, recognising our own cultural frameworks and how those cultural frameworks influence us and others. Continue to ensure our international assignees participate and cultural briefings when spending time in Vietnam, Papua New Guinea or Australia.

National Association of Women in Operations (NAWO)

We continue to be proud corporate members of NAWO, including representation as Chair of the NAWO Riverina Committee. Our men and women participate in development and networking sessions conducted by NAWO, across our rural network.

AgriFutures Rural Women's Award

Ongoing sponsorship of this national awards event, which is designed to enable women and men across the business to be inspired by rural women in our communities.

Jan Cathcart Memorial Scholarship Program

Now in its sixth year, the $30,000 scholarship is designed to support talented women who demonstrate a passion for and commitment to the rice industry and who can contribute and play a critical part in shaping a positive future.

Provided work experience opportunities for scholarship recipients in roles across our Group Marketing and Sustainability teams.

Western Riverina 'Grow our Own' (GOO)

- Partnered with Leeton High School and students developing a video on a range of careers available at SunRice
- Involved with secondary and tertiary students to promote career options through attendance at careers days, hosting students and teaching staff on site, providing work experience and work placement for individuals
- Sponsor of STEM event promoting Science/Technology/Engineering and Maths careers for secondary students. We also supplied Rice Cakes as snacks!

- Member of Grow Our Own network in Western Riverina actively showcasing opportunities within region and contributing to knowledge base and activities to strengthen choices made by youth.

Clontarf Foundation

Clontarf Foundation exists to improve the education, discipline, life skills, self-esteem and employment prospects of young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander men and by doing so equips them to participate meaningfully in society.

We have partnered with Clontarf in support of their new Academy at Narrandera High School. Our support will initially commence with one eligible Foundation school leaver working for two years in our workplace. This will include combined employment with structured learning to develop workplace skills and provide a nationally recognised qualification at the Certificate II, III, IV or Diploma level.

Other

- Ongoing partnership with FemiliPNG to support employees in PNG who have been victims of sexual or domestic violence.
- Participation in a forum where community leaders are invited to landscape what the optimum future state would look like for Indigenous people in Deniliquin.
- Joined Indigenous elders, members of the community and SunRice Indigenous employee representatives in National Aborigines and Islanders Day Observance Committee (NAIDOC) week celebrations at the Local Land Council.
